

10034

277 Madison Avenue.

New York, April 7, 1906.

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

I have your very kind letter and I can understand your desire to be present on so patriotic an occasion as the Paul Jones Ceremonies at Annapolis. The Secretary of the Navy issues the invitations, and they are principally confined I understand to official persons. I do not know just what rule is applied as to residents of Washington. Of course the space is limited at Annapolis but perhaps you can be supplied upon application.

Very sincerely yours,

Mrs. Albion W. Tourgee,

2015 Kalorama Avenue,

Washington, D. C.