

12044

COMMEMORATION
OF
JOHN · PAUL · JONES.

APRIL 24TH, 1906

NAVAL ACADEMY.

ANNAPOLIS,
MARYLAND.

EXERCISES COMMEMORATIVE

OF

JOHN PAUL JONES

AT THE

NAVAL ACADEMY, ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND

APRIL 24, 1906

AT 2 P. M.

Participated in by

His Excellency, THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
President of the United States,

His Excellency, J. J. JUSSERAND,
Ambassador E. and P. of the French Republic.

The Honorable CHARLES J. BONAPARTE,
Secretary of the Navy.

The Honorable EDWIN WARFIELD,
Governor of the State of Maryland.

General HORACE PORTER,
of New York.

Chaplain HENRY H. CLARK, U. S. N.,

With Music by the Oratorio Society of Baltimore,
Under the direction of Joseph Pache,
And the U. S. Marine Band,
Under the direction of Lieut. W. H. Santelmann.

PROGRAMME

“The Star Spangled Banner,”.....Oratorio Society

Address.....The President of the United States

“The Marseillaise,”.....Oratorio Society

Address.....The French Ambassador

“Around About Thy Starry Throne,” Handel....Oratorio Society

Address.....General Porter

“Maryland, My Maryland,”.....Oratorio Society

Address.....Governor Warfield

“How Sleep The Brave,”.....Oratorio Society

At the conclusion of the exercises, the audience is requested to rise and remain standing while the casket is removed from the hall.

JOHN PAUL JONES

July 6, 1747.—Born at Arbigland, Scotland, the son of a gardener named Paul.

1773-1775.—Resided in Virginia and North Carolina.

December 7, 1775.—Commissioned 1st Lieutenant of the Continental Navy.

June 14, 1777.—Ordered to command the "RANGER." The "Stars and Stripes" were adopted by Congress the same day.

February 14, 1778.—Received from French Admiral the first salute by a foreign power to the "Stars and Stripes."

April 24, 1778.—Captured H. B. M. S. DRAKE off Carrickfergus after a fight of sixty-five minutes.

August 14, 1779.—Sailed from Groix with BON HOMME RICHARD and squadron for coast of Scotland.

September 23, 1779.—After four hours fighting by moonlight captured H. B. M. S. SERAPIS off Flamborough Head, England.

May 19, 1788.—Ordered to command Russian fleet off Sebastopol.

June 7, 1788.—Defeated Turkish fleet.

July 18, 1792.—Died at residence, No. 42 Rue de Tournon, and body buried in Protestant Cemetery in Paris.

April 14, 1905.—Ambassador Porter announced that the body of John Paul Jones had been found and identified.

July 8, 1905.—Delivery of body to Rear Admiral Sigsbee, U. S. N.

July 24, 1905.—Body deposited in the vault at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland.

April 24, 1906.—Commemorative ceremonies in the armory of the United States Naval Academy, at the conclusion of which the body will be taken in procession to the niche prepared for its reception in Bancroft Hall, where the exercises of the day will be concluded with prayers by the Chaplain of the Naval Academy.

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY NY HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2013