

PITTSBURGH CHRONICLE TELEGRAPH

ESTABLISHED 1841.

10058

June
Fourth
1906.

Dear Sir:

In reply to the enclosed ad., we beg to call your attention to "The Paper That Goes Home", the acknowledged medium reaching the financial and prosperous class, of this great industrial center.

We would suggest that you try this ad. in our BIG SATURDAY EDITION, the same will cost 70¢ per insertion (payable in advance) or six days for the price of five. All ads. ordered for Saturday issue receives one free insertion on the following Monday.

Conclusive proof that any legitimate ad. will produce results, is conceded by advertisers using this profitable medium every week.

Hoping to be favored with an early order, we are,

Yours very truly,

PITTSBURGH CHRONICLE TELEGRAPH.

Chas. R. Lockard, Manager

Classified Adv. Manager.

A.M.S.