Mrs A. W. Fougge
Mayville, N.Y.

My Dear Mrs Fougge: Yours of 21st inst to hand also the newspapers - Am sorry my earlier correspondence failed to reach you - It has just been ret'd - I enclose envelope showing its route thro. P.O.
I am sorry that I haven't a copy of the sketch of Judge Fougge prepared for our work as its in the hands of the printer and therefore not available - It was prepared by Mr Frank Nash of Hillsboro & was submitted to impartial critics among them Judge R. M. Douglas & Mr. G. S. Bradshaw of this place - both of whom commented on its fairness & excellant presentation - It is 8 pages in length or about 3000 words - I'm glad you already have a steel portrait made and if you will forward to me here at once 750 copies of the portrait or the steel plate itself so I can have them executed from the plate - together with your check for $50.00 which is to cover the expense of inserting the portraits ~~in~~. It can be in time to be bound in volume IV, which goes to binders in next ten days - Therefore I would urge your immediate attention to this matter otherwise it must be left out - I will express a copy of vol. I for your inspection to enable you to appreciate the largeness of the work I am doing -

Hastily & Sincerely

Paul H. Stupper
