Mrs. A. V. Tourgee,
Mayesville, N. Y.

My Dear Mrs. Tourgee:

The steel portraits expressed to me arrived safely and I have forwarded them to the binders in Brooklyn, N. Y. However, I am fearful that they are on too heavy a card-board to permit of their being inserted in the volume. Therefore, I shall ask that you let me know immediately if you have the plate available and if you would forward it to the engravers, E. G. Williams, & Brother, East 169th St., McKinley Bldg., New York.

If the binders inform us that they cannot use the portrait sent, it will be then necessary to forward the plate to the engravers so that they can print therefrom edition size impressions for the book.

Please reply at once and oblige,

Charles Van Noppen
