Mrs Albin W Frazier
 Maysville Ky
 Dear Friend

Not knowing when you are I address this letter as above - When Mr Frazier was in France I wrote him to learn what he thought of Dixon's separate spots - He replied, requesting that the matter should be con-fidential - As the Dean Mr Frazier to his request I would ask if there is now any objection by you to my giving it away - There is so much wisdom in that reply, and while he was representing our government abroad it was doubtless very proper to withhold his opinion for that present. There may be no harm now in giving it to the public.

If you have any objections I certainly will regard them -

Very truly yours

May I ask what book it was of the tongue that gave the eye of the murder that occurred in the "Court House" and when the victim asked to look out of the window to take a last look at his home & family -

We have recently read the Fool's Grand & Buck's Incident Show & desire to read this, other -
