

10117

STREET & SMITH

General Publishers

"The Right Literature at the Right Price"

79-89 SEVENTH AVENUE, NEW YORK CITY

CIRCULATION DEPARTMENT

Nov. 2, 1906.

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Madam:-

Many thanks for your favor of Oct. 31st. We are glad that you informed us that the set of plates of PACTOLUS PRIME were in the possession of Mrs. J. R. Warner. We had started three tracers out after them but until the receipt of your letter, found no trace of same. We have written to Mrs. Warner, forwarding a money order for the expense to which she has been put and requesting that she reship the plates to you.

We trust that you will receive them without any further delay and that this will be satisfactory.

Yours truly,

STREET & SMITH.

H. W. R.

W. H. R.