

OFFICE OF PRINDLE & DYER,

(LATE PRINDLE & Co.)

Attorneys at Law and Solicitors of Patents,

No. 470 SEVENTH STREET,

Post-Office Box 708.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 1, 1869

A. M. Torrey Esq.
Dear Sir:

The undersigned, late Paymaster in the Army, for the last six years on duty in this city, having connected himself in business with PRINDLE & Co., favorably known as Solicitors of Patents, offers his services as an Attorney at Law in the Supreme Court of the United States, the Courts of the District, the Court of Claims, and before the Departments and Committees of Congress.

He believes that an official residence in Washington for so long a period, with an extensive acquaintance in the Departments and a knowledge of their routine, together with his previous practice at the bar, gives him unusual advantages in the prosecution of such business as may be entrusted to the firm of which he is a member.

Very respectfully,

GEORGE W. DYER.
