

March 7th, 1937

Mr C. F. Chapman Dr Sir 6th was not rec'd until a few moments since. -

I had already been written to concerning this account of Mr Arnold's by Mr Scofield a week or two since. <sup>and</sup> referred him, as I must you to Judge Van Dusen who had the matter in charge. -

Mr Scofield evidently did not think there was anything in Mr Arnold's claim - as he did not pursue it. - I, the wife of a lawyer, - I am too familiar, have been taught not to interfere when <sup>one has put</sup> their controversy in the hands of a legal adviser. - So you will excuse me if I cannot follow your advice and meet Mr Arnold to look the matter over.
