Dear Madam:-

Your letter of the 5th. inst. at hand and contents noted. I have a family of six and am of course intending to take them with me to Washington for the coming session. My family consists of self and wife, a son age 20 and daughter 17 and two smaller girls aged respectively 12 and 9. I am afraid, however, that your house is larger than we will desire and that I will hardly be able to pay the rent you demand. You do not say whether you will make a lease for the session or will require one for a year.

My wife and I will visit Washington some time during the Spring or Summer and we will be glad to look at the property and talk with you about leasing it if you do not lease it before we arrive.

I did not have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with Judge Tourgee, but I was a personal admirer of him and found great pleasure in reading his writings. I assure you I would be very glad to know you personally.

Very respectfully yours,

E. H. Madison
