

The Evening Post } WASHINGTON BUREAU
43 Wyatt Building. Telephone, Main 1357

April 17, 1907.

My dear Mrs. Tourgée,

Your note of April 2nd which was directed to me at New York has just come to me here. I am glad to have received your account of how your husband came to write the Consular report which excited my admiration. It is possible, if you have no objection, that at some time in the immediate future I shall print your letter in the Evening Post. If I do I shall send a copy of it to Chicago for simultaneous publication in the Evening Post of that city. The Washington correspondent of that paper printed at the same time that I did the article which I prepared in which attention was called to the literary excellence of what Judge Tourgée had written.

Mrs. Albion W. Tourgée,
Washington, D. C.

Sincerely yours,

Edward G. Loring
