Dear Madam:

We hear from our collector Mr. J. P. Crossgrove, Erie St., that your account for goods delivered this spring being unpaid prevents him from closing his delivery account with us. We are pressing him for a settlement so that we can include his delivery in the half year's business to which it belongs and as the half year expires in a few days we wish to have a prompt settlement of the same. You contracted to pay cash on delivery and we must therefore ask you now that you have returned home to Mayville to kindly settle this account with Mr. Crossgrove at once, failing to do so we will have to place the account in the hands of others for collection but this we trust will not be necessary and that you will settle the account with him this week.

Trusting that the stock will do well and give you satisfaction and thanking you for past favors, we remain

Yours truly,

WESTERN NEW YORK NURSERY CO.
