

Brooklyn, N.Y. February 11th 1849.

Dear Sir

I received your kind letter of the 6th inst. and in answer to inform you that I have been very busy since then and have not had time to answer you before. I am glad to hear that you are well and hope to see you in New York some day. I have been very busy since I published your article in the 11th of last journal. I am sure that your writing was of great service to the cause, and that the members of the Association will be glad to see the name of your Association in the Review of the 11th. I am sure that the Commission is a very valuable one, and that the result of it will be very beneficial to the cause of the free press. I am sure that you were not surprised to find the name of your Association in the Review of the 11th.

Your respectful and true friend for whom I feel an interest and who are not surprisedly "terribly" best these things are at least a man of much Inconvenience. I am very sorry.

Yours Very Respectfully

Wm. H. Hunt

I am very sorry Mr. Leaman has furnished more money, comparatively, to the Central Republican Committee at Washington, than any other man in the state.

Yours
