Dear Madam:-

Your letter of yesterday received. Our man, Mr. Thornton, will call on you again, on Monday if it is pleasant and will bring plenty of red geraniums so you can choose the sort you prefer and some vinca to trail over the edge. Then when you decide we can make a note of your order and give you the same each year if you so decide. He will have the large dracaenas too. Miss Fougere liked them and thought they would be very satisfactory.

Yours truly

J. H. Dann & Son
