Mrs. Emma A. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

Your kind favor of July 6th to hand with the corrected sketch of Judge Tourgee as noted in the proof pages sent you, and this matter will have our due attention when we reach the supplement in the last volume of our work.

It is our purpose to have our work as nearly free from error and prejudice, and bias as it is possible to make it, and because of our very sincerity along these lines we have found our task both difficult and tedious.

We thank you very much for the copy of the "C" letters which reached us late on Saturday night, and was immensely enjoyed on Sunday afternoon. We would appreciate very much your forwarding to us either copies of the "C" letters and any other papers, old dockets and other souvenirs touching the period of Judge Tourgee's life in North Carolina, and we will see that all that you send us in this way will be properly distributed among the historical libraries of this State.

I have been trying very hard to get hold of copies of Judge Tourgee's novels "Bricks without Straw" and "The Fool's Errand", but so far have been unsuccessful. If you have extra copies of these or any other of his novels, I will appreciate your presenting them to me and I will be glad to pay freight or expressage on all such material as you may see fit to send me.

Thanking you therefore in advance for your kindness in these matters, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

Charles L. Van Noppen
