Dear Madam:

We have a report from our salesagent, Mr. Skipper regarding the stock delivered at your residence this spring. He informs us that he fixed over your Roses for you and reports that nine out of the twelve are doing all right. We therefore must ask you to kindly remit your account of $9.00, so that we can close up this long over-due matter, and then whatever may require attention from us in regard to replacement will be attended to after your account has been paid.

Of course your contract entitles you to have anything that fails the first season, replaced, but that same contract entitles us to have full settlement of the account as soon as the goods are delivered, but under the circumstances, as we had to await our agent calling upon you, we are quite willing on receipt of your remittance by return of mail to entertain your claim for replacement for the three Roses that has failed.

Awaiting the favor of your remittance, which we hope to receive this week, we remain

Very truly yours,

WESTERN NEW YORK NURSERY CO.
