

10250

George S. Hulbert & Company, Publishers
Bible House, opp. Cooper Institute, New York

September 14th, 1907.

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,
Box 23,
Mayville, N. Y.

My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

The quotation from Buffalo strikes me as quite high both for paper and press work and binding. If the binding is to be gilt top and gilt lettering, I should think it ought to be done for 18 cents. We paid 19, I think, for "Fool's Errand" in a red pebbled cloth, the most expensive style and with more pages. I shall be interested to see what Drummond's price is for paper and printing.

Herein please find the Matthews-Northrup estimate.

Anything further in the matter I shall be glad to consider and render any assistance possible.

Very truly yours,

Geo. S. Hulbert

Duck Stamping & plain Edges should cost about 13¢ for binding.