Dear Mademoiselle:

Your letter of some weeks ago reached me, but my going and coming have been varied, and I have not "got to" the answering of it. I was glad to read your appreciative words concerning Henry: as to the matter we have had in discussion, let's drop it. Your note of inquiry as to Ontario's Ann came too, and altho' W. H. Allen seems to have come at the facts, I have been searching also, & have found the latest record about it in our books. Enclosed is copy of a letter written you March 14, 1899, in which the offer of the plates for $50 is transmitted to you. In pursuance of what we then wrote Little B. Co., there appears shortly after in our Invoice Book a bill from them for 20 cloth & 200 paper Ontario's Ann, at the
