Dear Friend

Your letter recd.

We were very sorry not to have the promised visit this season but we do not always make our plans work out just as we expect.

If you will give me just what your idea is about the cemetery lot I will see what can be done. I saw the sexton yesterday he says that there is some call for lots in the old cemetery, & that he sold one last week

If you wish the stones removed & give me power to do so I will see that it is done, they are of no value for farther use they are so thin. If you want them shipped to you they would have to be crated. Have you the Old deed so that the transfer could be made from that. The sexton says that there would nothing left after from 7 to 10 years. I think there would better chances to get a fair price if it was not forced on market to be sold until it was generally known.

If you have any kind of a Memorandum of the lot it would save some trouble in tracing but we can go to the Plat if you do not have the only thing that would likely to be any trouble was the loose way that things was done so long ago. It seems almost to bad that the last Mark for such a Dear Good Girl should be lost to her friends but with all that we most dear are removed & that a suitable and more permanent marker has been erected in a family lot will
