Mrs Emma K. Fougere

Dear Friend

Your letters read & I have just been & located the lot No
728. & found that it
was assigned to
A. G. Kilborn & that their son Wallace was buried in 1852. I think that there would be no trouble to find a
buyer if it was known that it was for sale.

If you wish me
to look after it you

had better make out a little form
so that I could show that I had Control of the lot
when I found a Purchaser you could fill out a deed & sign it with your full name as heir
to the said Kilborn.
Also name the price.

Judge Horrace Wilder
son Edward is to be brought here to be buried Sunday.

The girls are very busy, have just had a friend from Rochester visiting.
She was a step

Daughter of our Aunt
Mary Grant Brewster.
Do you think that the markers had better
be removed at once & take the chance of selling or would you think better to leave the Babies on the
lot. It might not hinder a sale to leave the small one & it might be a
help to hold the title if it was not sold soon.

Respt Yours &c

J. T. Grant
