M. A. Lyon Esq.,
Westfield, N. Y.

My dear Sir:

My daughter spoke to you some six weeks ago about a new edition of "Button's Inn" we are putting out. After many unforeseen delays and annoyances I am able to say that the book will be ready for delivery on or about December 10th, by Messrs Matthews & Northrup in Buffalo.

Owing to the advanced cost of paper and labor, I am obliged to put the book to dealers at only 40% off. It will be an attractive dollar book. Will you be so kind as to let me know how many copies you wish to have delivered to you for your Christmas trade? If you take 100 copies, I will give you easy ~~terms~~ terms of payment--ninety days from day of delivery. Of course, I could not do this, except with established and reliable people with whom I have had already satisfactory dealings.

We intend to do some advertising ourselves in the county papers which will aid sales all around.

I am, Sir,

Very truly yours,

E. K. J.
