Dear Madam - yours of the 31st was duly received and in reply, I will ask, if it would be agreeable to you to make an arrangement such, as we had years ago, to have a quantity of books on Sale, and pay for them as sold, or settle for such as were sold upon the first of each month, It would in the end amount to as much for you, and be more satisfactory to myself, as I cannot tell how well the

The book will sell, until a trial is made. If I was to have the exclusive sale of the book in Westfield, I would do some advertising myself. Is it your purpose to put it in the hands of jobbers, or to establish agencies in towns where one dealer in a place can have the entire sale of the ^{book in the} place?
Awaiting your reply. I am Very Resp^t & Yours
