

10312

Mayville, N. Y. November 26th, 1907.

Tuesday p.m.

Fred E. Hatch Esq.

10 East Third St.,

Jamestown, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

Mr F. A. Nelson, who occupies an apartment in The Thorheim, has suggested your name to me as one who would be willing to take the exclusive sale of our new edition of "Button's Inn" for your city. I own the plates and the book is being printed for me by Matthews-Northrup Company, Buffalo. I am putting it to dealers at 40% off, the retail price of the book being $1.00.

M. A. Lyon of Westfield has ordered 100 copies for his Christmas trade, to be delivered by the 10th of December.

When the book first came out, now nearly 20 years ago, Mr W. H. Henderson of Jamestown, sold many hundred copies. The book has been out of print for several years and the demand for it has been so great since the trolley to Westfield goes by the old site of the Inn, that we have been induced to get out the new edition.. The terms of payment from reliable people like yourself, are sixty days. I should be pleased to hear from you?

I am, Sir,

Very truly yours,

