Wednesday a.m.

Dear Mr Sixbey:

I have the enclosed from your bookkeeper this morning.

I hope I am too good a business woman to pay a bill like this, which is the first I have had from you since the last accounting.

Please instruct your bookkeeper to send me an itemized bill,-- both of debits and credits.

The matter of the books--"Button's Inn"--I wish separate from any other account, that is do not give me credit for these, but send me a check for the amount due me from them--giving the number received and sold--and I will send check for the tiles ordered by Mr Henderson for the drain on the Brooks property, which is all I have had from your store not paid for since the last check sent you.

Very truly yours,
