Friday a.m.

Honorable J. G. Beale,
2015 Kalorama Road,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr Beale:

The enclosed notice was received this morning, having been forwarded from Washington.

Of course, never having had experience in such matters, I do not know what it means. The same notice comes to Mrs Warner, who is not with me and I am forwarding it to her, as your check was by her pass through her bank in Washington.

I am only quite sure that you, a member of Congress and an old soldier would not knowingly give to the widows of your comrades a worthless check, and that you will straightway make it right as to the enclosed protest. I thought of asking you to send us a New York draft for this rent, considering the uncertainty of financial matter at the present time, but Mrs Warner discouraged the suggestion, saying her bank would take your individual check all right.

Please let me hear from you on receipt of this, as I shall be uneasy until the matter is settled.

Sincerely yours,

E. J.
