45 ERIE COUNTY SAVINGS BANK BUILDING.

Buffalo, N. Y. February 25th, 1908.

My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

My engagements must be my excuse for not having more quickly answered your letter of February 19th.

The settlement proposed with the Telephone Company by the memorandum slip for my consideration, is a sensible one. Almost any settlement is better than a law-suit.

I return herewith your enclosures, suggesting further that you may not be able to make exactly the settlement you desire, but if you can get pretty close to it, I should conclude it, were I in your place.

I regret to learn of your daughter's illness, but observe with pleasure that she is now on the mend. I am also glad to note that Button's Inn is doing well, and you have further hopes from its sale. You may have noted that Mrs. Moot and Welles have gone to Europe, while Seward is still at Harvard, and Richmond here.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Adelbert Moot

To

Mrs. Albion W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

Enclosure.
