

10384

Mayville, N. Y. March 9th, 1908.

Monday p.m.

M. A. Lyon Esq.,

Westfield, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

I am sending you this week a box of books--tomorrow probably, -- by the trolley. By some error the box was sent here instead of to Westfi.
I will notify you by postal when they go.

I would like your statement of books sold as soon as convenient. I intend to be absent for a couple of weeks now--after Thursday--and would be pleased to hear from you before that time.

Very truly yours,

E. K. J.