

H. H. TIMBY,
BOOK HUNTER AND BROKER IN BOOKS.
WRITING FROM HIS BOOK SHOP, AT

CONNEAUT, OHIO. _____ 190_____

MAR 13 1908

To Emma K. Fourcee,
Maysville N.Y.

Your favor noted and I will see if we can not find you a copy "With Guage & Swallow. " these things sometimes seem to defy all ordinary efforts but I usually run them down- I once had a good Hunt for "A SON of OLD HARRY " which at the time seemed to be absolutely off the earth ,I now have a copy in stockand several others that are being asked for every now and then.

As to Buttons INN I succeeded in getting a good Notice in Local Paper but have not sold any yet ,But they will sell in time- If you had any Anouncements or circulars printed I would mail out a thousand or so to the Libraries. unless you have already made an effort in that direction.

YOURS TRULY,

H. H. TIMBY.
