

A. C. McCLURG & Co.

215-221 WABASH AVENUE.

Chicago, March 16th, 1908.Mrs. G. W. Tourgee,*Mayville,*Chautauque Co.,*N.Y.*Dear Madam:-

We are interested to learn that you contemplate bringing out a new edition of "A Fool's Errand" and "Bricks without Straw." We find, however, that the demand for these books with us is practically at a standstill and while we could use a few of each we would hardly feel like advising you to go ahead and print it up unless you have some method of advertising and pushing it.

We have no demand whatever for "Button's Inn."

If you do bring out the two books mentioned above and will notify us when you have done so we will either order them direct from you or through some of the New York houses with whom you may place them. Of course, it would be much handier for us to order them from New York City than to have them shipped separately by express from Mayville.

A. C. McCLURG & Co.

215-221 WABASH AVENUE.

-2-

very truly yours,

A. C. McCLURG & CO.

