Mayville, N. Y. March 31st, 1908.

Tuesday p.m.

Dear Mr Sell:

Pursuant to our talk while in Erie last week, I am sending you to-day by Adams Express a package of 25 copies of "Button's Inn".

I have already sent a copy of the book to Mr Callaghan of the Dispatch with notices that you will have the book for sale for the Easter trade, and shall send tomorrow copies to the Herald and the Times also with notices that you have the exclusive sale of this book in Erie.

I hope you may do well for yourself which means that you will do well for us and that you may have occasion to duplicate your order before long.

I am, Sir,

Sincerely yours,
