Pie, Penna April 3-08

My dear Miss Tourgee
Your note reached me
this morning and this mail carries to you a marked copy of "The Times" containing my first effort in behalf of your book. I omitted
the name of the bookstore

Since its use might mean a bill for advertising. It is not necessary to give Dell's name as Eric has but the one book store, and those whose interest is aroused will ask Mr. Dell. So I shall render you more of a service by simply trying to arouse the interest.

It was a pleasure to receive your request and to extend the courtesy in my power. I shall hope to do more and to send you copies of papers. I thank you for the copy of the book of which I know I shall be able to lay many nice things.

Very truly yours

(Miss) Muna Johnston
