

110414

Mayville, N. Y. April 3rd, 1908.

Friday p.m.

To the Literary Editor,

The Herald,

Erie, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Mr Sell wished me to send you a copy of the new edition of my late husband's romance of old-stage coach days on the shores of Lake Erie and over the Chautauqua hills, which he has taken for sale this Easter season. As Judge Tourgee was at one time connected with the schools of Erie, I doubt not he is remembered there, and those who have not read this story may find it interesting to do so at this time--a story of the times so long gone by and which are unthought of by those living in the present.

I trust you may feel called upon to give a good review of the book and as many notices calling attention to the fact that Mr Sell has the book for sale as you can. Anything you may do to further the sales will be appreciated as I am putting out this edition on my own responsibility. Please send me any notices you may have of the book.

Believe me, dear Sir,

Sincerely yours,