The National Bank of Westfield

Westfield, N. Y.

April 22, 1908.

Mr. John L. [unclear]
[unclear], N. Y.
By [unclear]

I have your letter of the 12th inst. and note that you are anxious to your account with the bank. Mr. [unclear] is about to give up ownership of his share to be absorbed by the new bank, which expects to open for business about July 1st. In his connection, obliged to reduce his stock considerably and I presume that is the reason why he returned the sum of [unclear] [unclear].

[unclear] is the amount which he owes you. I know of no other way he does not pay you except the one that you indicate in your letter, that is to reduce share of the bank. I do not believe there is much danger of your losing the account but would advise you not to let it run indefinitely. You will, of course, want this as confirmation.

Very truly yours,

Cashier.
