General Agent

Union News Company,

Buffalo, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

The last winter I put out at my own risk, from the Matthews-Northrup press--a new edition of my late husband's famous Chautauqua County novel, "Button's Inn." I desire to push the sale as much as I am able, and write to inquire if you would not like to place the book in the hands of your agents on the Lake Shore R.R. and News Stands under your control. I spoke to one of the Agents on a Lake Shore train the other day, and he seemed to think the book would have a good sale referring as it does to so much of the local ground between Buffalo and Erie.

The book sells for $1.00, --40% off to dealers.

I should esteem it a favor if you would let me know whether you would like to take the book, and if so how many copies your agent would require, as I wish to give Matthews-Northrup the order to bind up the summer supply.

The book had a very large sale when it first came out in 1887. I enclose a short review, given it at the time, recently re-published.

Trusting I may hear from you favorably, I am, Sir,

Very truly yours,
