

10446

C. D. PENNEBAKER

JOHN PAUL JONES

PENNEBAKER & JONES
Attorneys and Counselors

1331 F STREET
WASHINGTON, D. C.

May 1, 1908.

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Madam:-

Your claim for back pay as widow of Albion N. Tourgee has been adjusted by the Auditor for the War Department and a balance found due of $51.11, arising as is shown in a statement of account which was mailed you on the 27th ultimo. A Treasury warrant for the amount named will be forwarded to you by the Treasurer of the United States within thirty days.

I am entitled, under your contract to a commission of 25%, which is $12.77, and for that amount I have this day drawn on you through the State Bank of your city. Please call at the bank and accept my draft and call again and pay it when you receive the warrant.

Very respectfully,

RBH.

C. D. Pennebaker