To the Honorable
Secretary of the Interior,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

I wish to ask a question, and if you are not the proper person to whom it should be propounded, will you have the goodness to pass this communication on to someone who will answer it. It is this:

Has an Attorney who collects back pay or bounty for the widow of a soldier of the Rebellion, a right to charge 25% commission for collecting the same?

I should be very much obliged to know what is correct in this matter.

I am, Sir,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

E. K. J.
