

10467

Mayville, N. Y. June 30th, 1908.

Friday a.m.

The Detroit Publishing Company,
Detroit, Mich.

Gentlemen:

I write to ask about when I may expect the postal cards you were having made for me? I think the four months you mentioned as the time which must elapse before they would be ready for delivery has about expired. I would like to send you a check for $50.00, on account July 1st, with which you could credit my account, and when the cards are ready for delivery you could forward them at once on receipt of which I would be able to send you the remaining $50.

Kindly let me hear from you by return mail.

I am, gentlemen,

Very truly yours,

E. K. J.