Miss Anna Torrey
 Mayville N.Y.

Dear Miss Torrey

I have seen your name in connection with Charatunga Doings, and whenever I saw it I have felt that I should like to meet you, and this because you are your father's daughter. For him I had a very high regard. He and I marched many many miles together, and we also passed many pleasant hours together. It does not seem possible we shall never clasp hand and greet each other again in this life. He was a brave soldier and a good companion. The remembrance of him will never pass from me while I am alive.

Trusting you may receive this letter in the spirit which prompted its writing, and that you and my comrad's wife may have a due share of happiness. I remain

Yours very truly
