JAMES PRENDERGAST FREE LIBRARY
JAMESTOWN, NEW YORK

My dear Miss Tourgee:-

September 5th 1908.

Three months or thereabouts is a long time to let a person remain in doubt as to her letter having been received even, but I will explain that since your reply to my inquiry concerning your father's books, I have been on vacation and otherwise occupied with affairs more pressing. Now I turn to your letter and the accompanying printed list of the works available and will order copies of them as follows:-

Black ice	1.50
The veteran and his pipe.	1.50
Letters to a king	1.50
Story of a thousand.	3.00

I will get copies of Button's Inn as needed from Mr. Hatch, your agent here.

Thanking you for the complete information you have furnished me regarding the books of Judge Tourgee, and awaiting the receipt of these listed above,

I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

Lucia J. Henderson
