

10534

The Arthur H. Clark Company

Telephones: Bell and Cuyahoga
Cable Address: Bookmen, Cleveland
Codes: ABC, 4th edition & Unicode
All correspondence should be addressed to the company

Publishers, Booksellers & Importers
of Old & Rare Books

Caxton Building, Cleveland, Ohio Oct. 20, 1908.

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Madam:—

On my return to Cleveland last week I took up your volume, "An Outing with the Queen of Hearts." I have looked it over carefully with a view to its re-issue by us. While I should like very much indeed to see this volume again made available, yet I am afraid that it is so far from the line of publications along which we are specializing, namely, historical source works, that I fear we could not handle it successfully. I am very sorry to make this report upon the re-issue, and hope that some publisher may take it up, for it is a very helpful and entertaining volume.

Under separate cover, by registered mail, I return the copy kindly sent to me for examination.

Yours respectfully,

THE ARTHUR H. CLARK CO.