Dear Madam:-

Your favor of recent date at hand, and contents carefully noted. In reply we beg to advise that, before we can submit design for ring, it will be necessary to have the stones cut, which will cost about $3.50.

You state in your last letter that you sent three stones, but on referring to your letter of January 3rd, we note that you stated you were only sending two stones, which were received. The small stone could be cut, and we could cut two stones from the larger one.

We also wish to advise that the gold chain you sent has been received.

We await your pleasure.

Respectfully,

Tiffany & Co.
