TIFFANY & CO.
FIFTH AVENUE & 37TH STREET
NEW YORK

14th November 1906.

Mrs. A. W. Torgue,
Mayville,
New York.

Dear Madam:

Your favor of the 11th instant is at hand,
with enclosure of $3.50, for which we thank you.

In reply we would say that upon examination of the stones, preparatory to cutting, we find that the larger stone is cracked, and we will cut same only at your risk, although we will exercise every care in doing the work. We would further state that we do not think that you could get two stones from the larger one, as we cannot tell how deep the eye in the stone is.

We are holding the matter in abeyance, awaiting your further pleasure, and remain

Respectfully

Please tell them to go ahead
at my risk —

Tuesday a. m.

A bright, beautiful cold slipping day. Fred's office not yet done, so no treatment. Air rather thick and I will remain quietly in my room this a. m. resting. My cold is gone.

Yrs. A.
