Wednesday a. M.

Mr Frank Crandall, President, etc.

Dear Sir:

Being absent I did not receive yours of yesterday relative to my note until this morning. It would be most "agreeable" indeed, for me not only to pay half but the whole of the note at once but unfortunately, my funds are all behind and though I have much more than the amount of the note due me, I have no certainty that I shall receive any of it before February. I do not see how I can do otherwise than ask for an extension of the note, therefore for 60 days, as I would be, to do otherwise. I am sending out several "duns" to-day but do not feel at all hopeful of results.

Please, therefore oblige me this time. I shall ask no more such favors in the future.

I am, Sir,

Very truly yours,
