45 ERIE COUNTY SAVINGS BANK BUILDING.

Buffalo, N.Y. February 8th, 1909.

My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

In answer to your letter just received, inquiring if I know some savings bank where your daughter can deposit her savings and feel perfectly safe, I answer that the Erie County Savings Bank is one of the strongest, best equipped savings banks known to me anywhere in this country. Its President, Mr. Donaldson, grew up with it, and has the most conservative views consistent with progressive and up-to-date bank management. I enclose you herewith a copy of their statement of January 1st, which gives you in detail their bonds, mortgages, real estate, and cash on hand, amounting altogether to $45,434,669.96. It has $41,645,273.82 of deposits, and there are 80,148 different open accounts. You will see it has a surplus of $3,789,396.14. On the basis of investment value, and on the basis of market value, this surplus must be very much larger.

I am glad to hear your daughter has such a propitious opening, and I hope in due time her offerings will fall under my eye.

With best wishes to yourself and your daughter, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Adelbert Moot

To

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.
