

10625

A. L. BURT, President and Manager.

HARRY P. BURT, Treasurer.

F. A. BURT, Secretary.

A. L. BURT COMPANY, ❁ ❁ ❁

PUBLISHERS OF THE WORLD'S BEST BOOKS,

❁ ❁ ❁ 52-58 DUANE STREET,

NEW YORK, March 6 1909

Telephone 2791 Worth

Mrs. A. W. T. Fourgee,
Mayville,
N.Y.

Dear Madam:-

Your favor of recent date came to hand, but was laid aside for extra consideration. We do not think it would pay us to bring out an edition of THE FOOL'S ERRAND. While this book was very popular at the time it was first published, to-day it is scarcely remembered by the present generation, and we have no calls for it.

We do not believe the public to-day know the book, and therefore they would not buy it. At a low price if published we could not afford to advertise the book, and without advertising it would not sell. For the reasons mentioned we do not think it would be advisable for us to consider publishing the book.

We have had a number of talks with Mr. Bulbert in regard to publishing this book, but without coming to any decision to do so.

Yours truly,

A. L. BURT COMPANY,

By ALB

CHAUTAQUA COUNTY