My Dear Mrs. Tourgee:

Your letter of Wednesday the 7th. inst. is just received and I am at a loss to know why the letter written you last Saturday morning has not reached you. The letter certainly should have been returned to me if not delivered. I wrote you inclosing blank note for $500. to be signed by Aimee and will now inclose another note and trust the delay has not inconvenienced you. Please have Aimee sign the inclosed note if she is able to do so and we will hold one of her Waddell bonds as collateral to the loan as suggested in your letter.

I hope Aimee is improving yet you do not state it in your letter. It is very hard for you to have the worry of Aimee's serious illness and I hope that she will soon be restored to her usual health.

Possibly you have not heard of Mrs. E. A. Skinner's death which occurred one week ago today. I think you and Mrs. Skinner were quite friends and it will no doubt be a shock to you to know that she has passed away. Her illness has extended over about two years but for the past six or seven months she has been confined to her bed almost entirely with heart trouble.

Mrs. Flagler joins me in the hope that Aimee will soon be restored to her usual health and that you may return to Mayville for the summer.

Very truly yours,

Cashier.
