In reply to your letter of June 9th, in which you state that damage to the 2 chairs was $12.50. You also returned the stand to Resinski & Morris, at Washington, for repairs.

On receipt of the repair bill, kindly forward same to me; also state the total amount claimed. Then we will send you a verification blank, which it will be necessary for you to fill out before we can make payment, as the shipment was damaged account of fire and water, and we have to prepare certain documents for the insurance company.
