

who arrives today in a blaze of glory.

I am glad you can get hours of rest on the balcony, but hope you will not be caught napping again; at the same time I hope young Steward's story is true & that you will have your reward.

We'll write you further. The message from "Bessie" was appreciated. My cordial good wishes to her.

Faithfully Yours
Ed. S. Hulbert

P.S. After writing, reading the foregoing, J.R.H. called & we went out for luncheon. He says there is an Arthur Howard, son of his cousin, about 30 years old who has been very wild & adventurous. He attacked public officials in Salem, Mass. in the press with graft and was thrown into jail, but kept up the fire & was elected Mayor of Salem & thinks he holds that position now.

J.R. never saw him, but says he has the reputation of being "smart" & unconventional. He does not know about his being entitled to the initial R used in his name as given to you.

This Arthur is the brother of Montagu Howard of Howard & Co. 264 Fifth Ave. N.Y. City whom I cannot hope to reach this parade day =
