My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

Last night I got time to read your most interesting article on "How the Office was Obtained".

It has both biographical and historical value, and I think will be very interesting to readers; certainly it was so to me. It ought to have a wide circulation, and I will at once see what can be done to put it into the right sort of a newspaper.

I hope this delightful weather finds you out doors most of the time, and rapidly recovering your health. I am glad to see that your courage is still equal to all demands upon it.

Hastily yours,

Adelbert Moot

To

Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.
