

When a year or two allows you to be in your mind I used to take from the library of the Academy, or from that of the several person - to whom now own a greater debt of gratitude or remember with a more ~~earnest~~ revere the volumes of the English poets, I was struck - as I revised their pages with a something in the pages and essays which came in such profusion during the last decade of the last century and the first of this - which was printed and from long time independent

The material little which were the same or particular of the which whether the impetu-ous Byron pouring forth his torrent of Marvellous long the London poets summing his much fantastic scenes into incidents over; Shelle fully in various passages through the other of sublime though on Coleridge following the ranges of his wildly beautiful speculation - with express his profound contemplation written with his eye. I am with his

Not self-forgetting —
God forbid.

But working out the secret his within the keystone of the Christian arch

Join in the future's ^{our own} ~~our own~~ search

Bearing aloft the confluence of Love

The holiest lighted up above

And brought with him to earth & sea

Before a dazzled world on Olivet!
